

Conference & Banqueting Facilities

The hotel opened for business in 1965 and is now Wakefield's oldest established hotel. We are situated in a district with a rich diversity of cultural and leisure pursuits to help you unwind at the end of the conference day. Free parking is available within the hotel grounds for approximately 40 cars.

The Chasley Hotel Wakefield has a choice of meeting facilities from the Yorkshire Suite to a number of smaller rooms for board meetings, training sessions, syndicate work and private dining. We are happy to set the room up with an appointment to show you around so you can gain a feel for the place.

Catering can be arranged both in the Restaurant or in one of the meeting rooms, we have a variety of menus and our chef is happy to advise. Please note these menus are not set in stone and the chef will be happy to compile a menu to suit your individual palette.

The Suites

The Yorkshire Suite

This is the largest suite available; the suite provides a good working environment with windows on three sides, which can be blacked out if required. There are two dance floors and access to a private bar in the Spire lounge, which make it particularly appropriate for dinner dances. The Yorkshire Suite can also be split into two separate rooms by a soundproof partition: the Priory and the Calder.
